[Q&A related to Academic Schedule]

- Q1. Can't we have online lectures for the first semester of 2021?
- A1. The current plan for the first semester of 2021 is alternating(offline&online) lectures(or face-to-face lectures when the COVID-19 situation in Korea gets better). At this point we are expecting the COVID-19 situation in Korea to be stabilized as the start of the semester nears. At this point, there are no plans to offer online lecture for the entire 2021-1 semester. The decision was made based on opinions from international students and corresponding departments. Please check the notice to avoid any difficulties in completing the 2021-1st semester.

Q2. I'm a student of the department of Non-Entry, but can I enter Korea and take online classes?

A2. You can take online classes after entering Korea. If you want to stay in Korea and take online classes, please send a copy of your flight ticket and application for quarantine accordance with the information on the on-campus quarantine facility and the Q&A.

Q3. I'm a student in the department of Entry, but I don't want to enter Korea.

A3. In 2020, for about one year, 100% online classes were offered for overseas students in consideration of the situation, but international students in the departments requiring experimentations or practices(especially in the arts) showed great deal of dissatisfaction with online classes. If you are in the department of Entry, but do not wish to enter Korea, it is recommended to take a leave of absence(defer) for the semester. If you do not enter Korea or absent to classes based on your own decision, you are responsible for any problems that arise.

Q4. If I sign up for a course in the pre-survey, is the registration for the course officially completed?

A4. Pre-survey is not an official registration for the first semester of 2021. You need to register for courses in February to complete the official registration. You should access the 'web information system' and re-check the timetable after the formal registration.

<Formal course registration schedule>

- 1st : 2021.02.04 (Thu)

- 2nd : 2021.02.09 (Tue)

- Registration for students of closed classes : 2021.02.26. (Fri)

Q5. Can I enter Korea in mid-March?

A5. You must enter Korea within two weeks after the opening day of the school according to the guidelines from immigration office. The opening day of the first semester of 2021 is 2021.03.01, so you must enter Korea by 2021.03.14. the latest. The visa will be cancelled afterwards. Also, the self-quarantine upon entering Korea will be your responsibility.
