

Notice for the implementation of the DKU Korean Language Proficiency Test related to Graduation in February 2022

As there are some difficulties in taking the TOPIK test in Korea as well as other countries due to the undergoing COVID-19, Dankook University would like to temporarily replace the acquisition requirements for obtaining TOPIK level 4 or above among the graduation conditions for international students to “the Korean Language Proficiency Test of Dankook university”.

Please read the following details and take the test if you need it.

- 1. Subject: Students eligible for graduation in February 2022 and have not obtained TOPIK level 4 or above, who entered after 2012-1st semester or transferred after 2014-1st semester
(Total: 56/Jukjeon 52/Cheon-an 4)
*Please make sure to check the attached file to find your name on the list.
Except for the TOPIK level 4 or higher graduation requirements, those who do not meet the other graduation requirements (credits, thesis) are excluded.

2. Date and the way to take the test

가. Date: 2021.12.22. (Wed) 15:00~16:20 [KST]

나. 시험방법: DKU portal → E-learning system → 자체 한국어능력 인증 시험 → Click “시험 및 설문” and take the test (Obligatory to use the ZOOM application to monitor cheating, Link for entering ZOOM classroom would be sent to each individual.)

3. Notes

- A. The Korean Language Proficiency Test of Dankook University is being conducted temporarily in the 2nd semester in 2021 for those eligible for graduation in February and who have not obtained TOPIK level 4 due to COVID-19.
- B. The Korean Language Proficiency Test of Dankook University’s result is only eligible for those who graduate in February 2022 and if any other requirements do not meet, even though you passed the test, the result will not be reflected for the next graduation requirements.

(Those who do not meet the graduation requirements in February 2022 must take the official TOPIK test later, not the test of DKU, and submit the certificate of level 4 or higher to the Global Education team until December)
