The TWC academic internship experience consists of:

The Internship

Each week, you'll work Monday through Thursday at an internship site that is tailored to your interests, skills and professional goals.

The Evening Course

One night each week (between Monday and Thursday), you'll take an evening course. These courses range across an array of disciplines and you'll choose the option that's best for you.

The LEAD Colloquium

On Fridays, you'll participate in small groups and professional tracks, along with periodic large-group activities like a speaker series, civic engagement and more.

And don't forget the countless networking and social opportunities that TWC and Washington, D.C. have to offer!
